Hello,

Well, another great holiday weekend in the books! We had plenty of room and lots of smiling faces. Hats off to all the committees, volunteers, staff, and folks behind the scenes that made all the events a great success. You guys don't get enough credit for what you do and I want you to know you are very appreciated!

Maintenance has been busy this week playing catch up from the holiday. Keep in mind, during the holiday weekends they are busy working failed breaker boxes, busted water lines, extra trash pickup, and various other jobs that keep them away from doing their everyday projects. Once the crowd leaves, we are still going strong to get ready for the next big event.

I noticed a few things over the weekend I'd like to touch base on. Please be aware of the overflow parking signs. Only park in the designated areas unless otherwise instructed by management or a ranger. Also, trash is becoming a huge issue again already this year. Please, please, pay attention to what you are putting in the back of your SXS's when taking off. Ice bags are the number one item we find throughout the Ranch. In addition to that, the dumpsters! Folks, I personally cleaned around several dumpsters this weekend and found trash bags overflowing in containers that had lots of extra room if the other lid had been lifted. Lets all make an effort to get control of these issues and keep our Ranch trash free and looking beautiful.

I'm looking forward to the upcoming Mud Mania event hosted by the Volunteer Fire Department and First Responders. I understand we have 3 bands scheduled for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday night and a special Motocross Performance on both Friday and Saturday. These are in addition to the regular Mud Mania events. Conservation will also be stocking fish on Friday and hosting the Annual Father's Day Trout Tournament on Saturday. Everyone should plan to attend!

Season is in full swing now! Keep smiling and I'll see you around the Ranch!

Happy Camping,
Mike Edmonds
Ranch Manager
