What a Weekend!

Hello,

Did everyone have as much fun last weekend as I did?! I need a nap! We had so many events scheduled it was hard to catch up with all of them but I sure tried. A huge thank you to all the staff, volunteers, and committees for all their hard work. I can assure you, your efforts do not go unnoticed and are much appreciated. Following a brief pause in the action this weekend, we hit the road running again July 15th and 16th. Friday the 15th, Conservation has another trout stocking scheduled at 10am at the Kids Fishing Hole. Then later Friday night, at 8pm, we will be rockin' to the Damsel Band at the lawn stage. Saturday is packed with fun..Conservation is hosting the Annual Scavenger Hunt at the T-Top. Registration from 11am to noon and the hunt starts a 12pm. Then "off to the races!" C9R is hosting The BIG FLOAT Race at 4pm at Gene Bean crossing and ending at the Tubes. This should be interesting to say the least! You have to be 18 to play. Sorry kids, this ones for the big boys! (and girls) :) Next up..The Grand 70's Celebration! The 70's Costume Contest begins at the stage area at 7pm. I hear there are some pretty cool prizes for this man! Following the contest, Dr Zarr's Amazing Funk Monster Band hits the stage! I've been waiting all year to hear these guys! The band will play until around 11:30pm, then we light the fireworks! Wait..didn't we just do fireworks?? I guess we're doing it again! Gosh I love this Ranch! Don't forget, both bands are GOLDEN TICKET events! There will be more Super Sweet prizes given away both nights! Just a quick reminder guys and gals..NO GLASS in the pools or creek. This is becoming an issue and for everyone's safety, including your own, please follow this rule.

Rest up..MUCH more excitement to come here at the Ranch!

Happy Camping and Peace Out!
