Weekly Report

MIKE EDMONDS
RANCH MANAGER

Hi Everyone!

Week 32
August 8th, 2024

A pleasant cool down here at the Ranch this mid week with rain in the forecast for the first of next week. Temperatures yesterday and today in the mid 70's. Today we have 5 employees from Maintenance and Ranger department in Springfield, MO for propane certifications and re-certifications to ensure that our members can always have their in date propane bottles filled.

We are working on the first Entrance to Powder Mill Campground today. What we have been doing has not held up very well, so we are doing the repaired a little different this time. It takes longer but we are hoping for a longer lasting approach to the pavement. Caution! Please watch where you back up and are driving! During the 4th of July Holiday we had 2-200amp distribution boxes backed over, one in Powder Mill and one in Hill Country. This week we had one in Melody Lane that was really bad and hard to repair! Dumpsters! Please do not just throw your trash on top of the dumpster lid! This dumpster was only 85% full, but the one beside only had 12 bags of trash in it. The birds and animals rip the bags open and we chase and pick up trash everywhere.

Forecast for Great Temperatures this weekend, come to your Ranch and enjoy a great weekend!

Thanks Mike
