Hi Everyone!

Cold temperatures here at your Ranch. Wednesday was the first day above freezing this week. The cold temperatures are keeping the Maintenance and Resource departments busy with replacing broken faucets and standpipes. The good news is the 10-day forecast is showing temperatures in the 40's to low 50's.

The work in the Restaurant Kitchen is proceeding along well. This week we removed and replaced a 16-foot section of the back wall that was improperly built on the last expansion several years ago. We are still hoping to have the Restaurant back open by February 10th or sooner if possible.

Next month we have a Board of Directors meeting (February 8th) followed by the Valentine's Heart Hunt and raffle (sponsored by the Conservation Committee). Spring is right around the corner BUT way wait? Come down and rent a cabin and see the beauty here in the winter at your Ranch!

Thanks
