Hi Everyone!

MAY 29TH, 2025

I hope everyone had a Great Memorial Day Weekend! My understanding is there were no dust complaints this last weekend! I do not think you could even buy any dust here at your Ranch! Over our 4-day holiday (Friday thru Monday) we received 7.01 inches of rain. With this round of rain and flooding, we did have more damage to our roads and creek crossings. We have had more rain this week but only showers and most of the crossings should be crossable. Please use caution at all creek crossings! I am sure that this was the first time so many members were able to see the creek during a flooding event.

Tuesday, Maintenance dug up and repaired a septic line in Powder Mill Campground: that caused issues during the holiday weekend. I hope that everyone was able to see the duck and her 10 ducklings! This duck had a nest under the steps leading down to my office and I have been watching and feeding her for a little over 4 weeks. Friday she led them to the duck pond and Saturday she led them to the Melody Lane Pond, where they are currently residing.

If you would like to be on the Conex List, please email me at gm@cloud9ranch.com. And please include your name, phone number, and member number in the email.

Thanks

Celebration of Life

Robert (Bob) Moore

Sunday June 1st @10am Cloud 9 Ranch Chapel

Bob was my neighbor here on the Ranch, on occasion
I would see him at the Chapel driving his red truck.

He was quiet, sweet man.

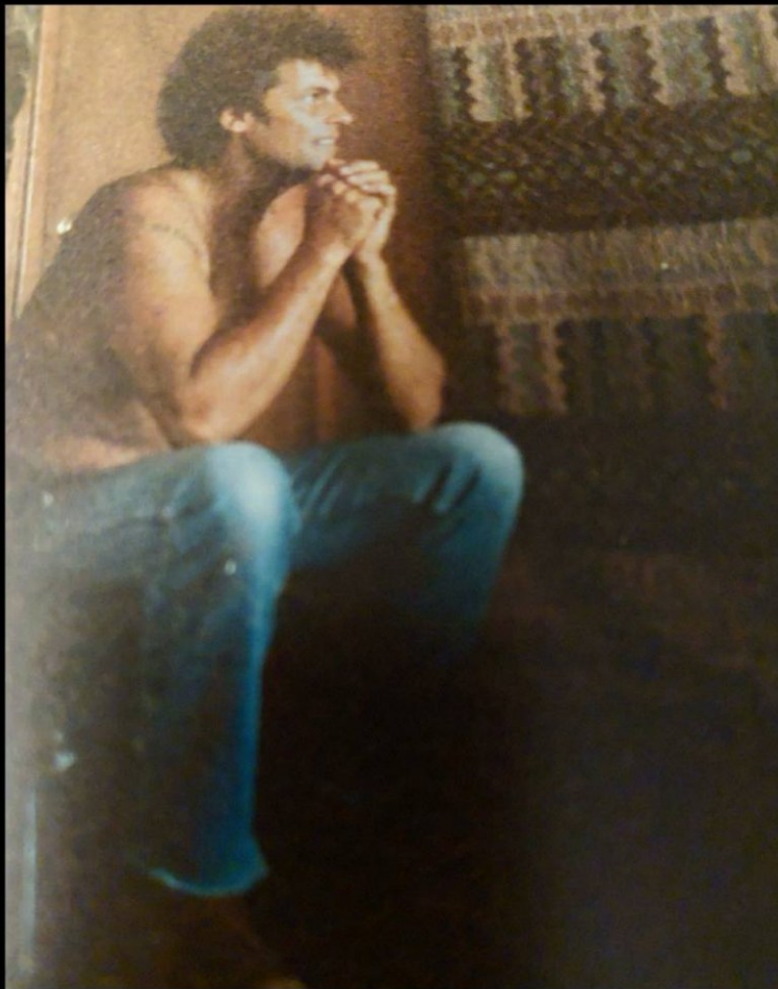

Story/memory provided by Debbie Swink

I used to work at the Gatehouse, I remember when I was working the morning shifts, I would see Bob head out on his, almost daily, trip off property, he would also smile and wave so big. Every time he came back in, he would always have honey buns or a bag of donuts for us girls that were working that morning. We always appreciated it and adored him dearly.

Story/memory provided by Tiffany Daugherty

My aunt was a pool attendant at the Ranch and Bob was a Ranger.
My aunt made friends with a member-couple from IL who encouraged her to get to know him; as he was always jokingly calling her "Aunt Jan" because, well, she did have a few of us nieces and nephews at the pool and our friends would call her that, too; and she called him "Ranger Bob". So, eventually he and my aunt began dating. She was crazy about him! Bob was her first real love. I'm pretty sure she still has a couple of his art pieces; inheriting one (I think a charcoal piece) he gave my grandma which she hung on the living room wall next to the doorway leading to the kitchen. When we moved off the Ranch in the mid '80s and bought our 160-acre farm in Arroll (Summersville), Bob lived out there with us for a while. He stayed in his own living quarters in a building on our property close to our house, but he always ate every meal with us as a family. Bob was very talented, talented beyond his art. He had a talent for music, songwriting, storytelling, connecting with people and animals alike, and also with nature. That's where he was the happiest...in nature. He had some of the best stories, especially during our family dinner time and during firesides. He had us captive and he also had us laughing. We all loved spending time horseback riding on our farm and playing at our swimming hole, too. We even camped on the farm and on Cloud 9 in a Teepee he gave us.
