MANAGERS Report

January 22nd, 2026

LEE KROUT
RANCH MANAGER

Hi Everyone!

Here comes Winter! I'm sure by now most of you have figured out that the Ranch is predicted to have some major winter weather starting Friday evening. You never know who to believe when it comes to meteorologists but everything I have been watching shows some type of winter weather for the Ranch. I have seen everything from 6 inches to 2 feet predicted. At least right now everyone is showing the ice is supposed to stay south but not by much. We are preparing and staging equipment and supplies today and Friday. The Board of Directors has cancelled the Board Meeting for Saturday, and it has not been rescheduled as of now.

If you are at the Ranch or decide to come this weekend, please be prepared and have some backup plans in place to heat your camper in case there are any extended power outages. Most of the power lines on the Ranch are below ground but the lines feeding us from the outside are not. One local forecast this morning showed the actual temperature Monday morning was going to be -6 degrees. We will have frozen water pipes for sure at that temperature.

The Ranch is a beautiful place when it is covered in fresh snow but you do need to be careful and make sure you are safe if you come out to ride.

Thanks
Lee Krout
